

ABSTRACT

Bachelor thesis: p. 148, fig. 63, tabl. 21, 11 applications, 9 sources.

Consider the original approach to the analysis of state information resources in terms of interoperability. The methods allow to explore e-government and to see the dynamics of change.

The object of the study is 23 core registers covering services from the concept of e-services in Ukraine.

The subject of the thesis is interoperability 23 core registers.

The aim is to analyze the current situation, identify problems and build a strategy of public information resources.

The methods used in the thesis work: analysis of regulatory documents on the topic of the bachelor thesis, study and generalization of foreign practice, index synthesizing and clustering registers due to functionality.

INTEROPERABILITY, STATE INFORMATION RESOURCES, UNIQUE REGISTRY ENTRIES, E-GOVERNANCE, SWOT-ANALYSIS.