

ABSTRACT

Master's thesis, 144 pp., 26 tab., 1 appendix, 35 sources.

The object of the work is palliative medicine and its current state system of measures provided by this branch of medicine to patients in Ukraine compared with other countries.

The main purpose of the work is a database management system for palliative medicine, its components and preconditions necessary for its creation and implementation in Ukraine.

The main aim of the work is developing a model of database management system for palliative care in Ukraine, cost calculations, defining risks and prospects of the project.

The work formulates the essence of problems and tasks of theoretical research and a model project database for palliative medicine in Ukraine, which will, in practice, to solve a number of problems formulated.

In this paper were defined the ways and the cost of the project, its prospects and the risks in the current Ukrainian realities. Defined strategy implementation.

PALLIATIVE MEDICINE, DATABASES, DATABASE MANAGEMENT SYSTEMS, PHARMACOLOGICAL MEASURES, INFORMATIONAL CARDS.